

When Addressing a Relative

Use these terms when talking to a relative.
For example, If you wanted to say "Hey Mom!" You could say "Hey hintée!"

Mom!	hintée
Dad!	hamíí
Daughter!	hintée
Son!	hamíí
Older Sister!	t ^h opáa
Younger Sister!	t ^h awáa
Older Brother!	opáa
Younger Brother!	wáa
Cousin!	wak ^h táa
niece/nephew! (child of different gendered sibling)	ts'áa niece/nephew! (child of same gendered sibling)	siwáa
Maternal Grandparent!/ Grandchild!	k'asáa
Paternal Grandparent!/ Grandchild!	kamtáa

USE THIS LINK TO VIEW THE E-BOOK THAT GOES WITH THIS LESSON:

<https://www.cowcreekeeducation.com/takelmalanguagecurriculum/>

This just a portion of the terms needed to talk about family members. If you are interested in learning other family member terms that aren't listed here, reach out to the language team!

Discover
more Language

email:

info-education@cowcreek-nsn.gov

website:

www.cowcreekeeducation.com/

Takelma K^hwìnax (Family)

Family Language
Lesson
2022

MY Relative

Use these terms when talking about your relatives.
For example, If you wanted to say "my mom" you could say "wihin" instead.

my mother	wihín
my father	wihám
my daughter	wipeyán
my son	wik ^h apayí
my child	háap ^h tek ^h
my children	háapxtek ^h
my older sister	wit ^h opíi my younger sister	wit ^h awáa my older brother	wí'opíi
my younger brother	wí'wáa
my paternal aunt	wit ^h atí my maternal aunt	wixakayí my paternal uncle	wixtaayí my maternal uncle	wihasí
my cousin	wiwak ^h tí
my wife	kúuxtek ^h
my husband	t'íit ^h k ^h
my niece/nephew (child of different gendered sibling)	wits'ayí my niece/nephew (child of same gendered sibling)	wisiwí my maternal grandparent/ grandchild	wik'así my paternal grandparent/ grandchild	wikamtì

YOUR Relative

Use these terms when talking about someone else's relatives. For example, If you wanted to say "your mom" You could say "hì'nt"^h your mother	hì'nt ^h

your father	hamì't ^h
your daughter	peyà'nt ^h
your son	k ^h apayì't ^h your child	háap ^h te'
your children	háapxte'
your older sister	t ^h opìi't ^h your younger sister	t ^h awaa't ^h your older brother	opìi't ^h your younger brother	waa't ^h your paternal aunt	t ^h atì't ^h your maternal aunt	xakayì't ^h your paternal uncle	xtaayì't ^h your maternal uncle	hasì't ^h your cousin	wak ^h tì't ^h your wife	kúuxte'
your husband	t'ìit ^h
your niece/nephew (child of different gendered sibling)	ts'ayì't ^h your niece/nephew (child of same gendered sibling)	siwì't ^h your maternal grandparent/ grandchild	k'asì't ^h your paternal grandparent/ grandchild	kamtì't ^h

HIS/HER, THEIR Relative

Use these terms when talking about someone else's relatives, or a person who is a relative. For example, If you wanted to say "the/a mom" or "his, her, their mom" You could say "níxa."

the/a mother	níxa
the/a father	máxa
the/a daughter	peyán(xa)
the/a son	k ^h apáxa
the/a child	háapxi
the children	háapxi
the/an older sister	t ^h òpxa
the/a younger sister	t ^h awáaxa the/an older brother	òpxa
the/a younger brother	wáaxa
the/a paternal aunt	t ^h àta the/a maternal aunt	xakàxa
the/a paternal uncle	xτάaxa
the/a maternal uncle	hàsa
the/a cousin	wak ^h tìxa
the/a wife	kúuxta
the/a husband	t'ìit ^h
the niece/nephew (child of different gendered sibling)	ts'àxa the niece/nephew (child of same gendered sibling)	siwìxa the/a maternal grandparent/ grandchild	k'àsa
the/a paternal grandparent/ grandchild	kamtìxa